Details

Polaris MVRS 700 4x4 ATV

Just arrived direct from military reserve stock, we have a choice of vehicles available. All are in excellent condition mostly unused with less than 50 hours only!

The MVRS was produced for the military for a ultra light tactical vehicle. To withstand rugged terrain and harsh environments they are expected to face, the MVRS features a rugged steel exoskeleton, run flat tyres, high capacity fuel tank and a completely sealed power train that can ford in up to 30 inches of water.

For easy transport of soldiers or equipment, the vehicle also has a front storage rack, multiple D rings, weapons storage and a rear tipping body with fold down sides. The vehicle is also made to be air droppable. Some vehicles are also fitted with a front mounted Warn electric winch
